

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER

Collaborative Agreement between Georgetown University Law Center and Fundación Guatefuturo

Georgetown University Law Center and Fundación Guatefuturo both have an interest in strengthening bilateral co-operation in the field of education between Guatemala and United States of America, and enhancing the links between Georgetown University Law Center and its academic counterparts in Guatemala. An important means of fostering such co-operation and links is the provision of loan-scholarship opportunities to talented Guatemalan students wishing to pursue graduate degree programs at Georgetown University Law Center. The purpose of this agreement is to provide shared financing for Guatemalan students at Georgetown University Law Center, within the framework of a joint graduate loan-scholarship program.

The joint graduate loan-scholarship program will operate as follows:

1. Students in Guatemala interested in the program will seek their admission, following the normal application procedures, and meeting all the standard admission requirements established by Georgetown University Law Center, including all English language requirements.
2. Students unconditionally accepted by Georgetown University Law Center will submit a loan-scholarship application to Guatefuturo, following the normal application procedures, and meeting all the standard requirements established by Guatefuturo.
3. Students who are offered a place for full-time study in Georgetown University Law Center, and who are selected for a loan-scholarship by Guatefuturo, will then be eligible for shared financing under this agreement.
4. Georgetown University Law Center will provide a scholarship of 50% off the tuition to two eligible students.
5. Guatefuturo will provide the remainder of the tuition and fees, as well as a stipend for living expenses, according to its established norms, i.e. up to US$25,000 per year for a maximum of two years. Students will have to provide from other sources any further amount required to meet the full costs of their programme of study.
6. Each institution will designate a named coordinator to implement and monitor the programme. In particular, named coordinators will be responsible for ensuring:
  - a) That Georgetown University Law Center provides Guatefuturo with all relevant promotional material and prospectuses in order to encourage interest in its programs in Guatemala.
  - b) That Georgetown University Law Center provides all Guatemalan students unconditionally accepted in Georgetown University Law Center with

- information about the loan-scholarship program and encourages them to contact and submit an application to Guatefuturo.
- c) That Guatefuturo forwards details of the selected students to Georgetown University Law Center.
  - d) That the necessary financial arrangements are made for confirmed students.

The named coordinators are:

For Georgetown University Law Center
Justin Swinsick
Associate Director of Graduate Admissions

For Guatefuturo
Marta Barrera de Donis
Programs Coordinator

- 7. Both institutions will publicise the agreement to prospective Guatemalan graduate students.

This agreement shall remain in force from the date of signature by the undersigned representatives of each party and may be reviewed or renegotiated at the request of either party. Either party may terminate the agreement on thirty days written notice to the other party.
