AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF PADUA
AND FUNDACIÓN GUATEFUTURO

The University of Padua (hereinafter also referred to as UniPD), with legal address in via VIII Febbraio n. 2, Padua, Italy, represented by its Rector Prof. Daniela Mapelli jointly with Fundación Guatefuturo hereinafter referred individually to as “Party” or jointly to as “the Parties”, have agreed to sign the following Agreement of Cooperation (hereinafter referred to as “Agreement”)

CONSIDERING that UniPD is one of Europe’s oldest and most prestigious universities. It is a major multidisciplinary university, with 8 schools and 32 Departments, which ensure a broad and varied range of subjects that cover all fields of learning;

TAKING NOTE that UniPD is a university that offers a comprehensive and continually updated variety of courses. It ranks among Italy’s leading universities for teaching quality and provides students with a solid academic background and excellent training. UniPD has a long tradition in international cooperation. It also participates in the leading international networks, and its research and teaching projects involves students and lecturers from all over the world;

RECALLING that the Loan-scholarship Programme (the “Programa de Crédito-beca”) is a national scholarship program managed by the Party, whose aim is to provide opportunities for Guatemalan professionals who wish to pursue postgraduate degrees abroad, enrich themselves academically and personally, and then return to work for the development of the country.

DESIRING to enhance mutual collaboration as well as cultural, scientific and operational interaction that may lead to significant improvements of the activities of the Parties.

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE 1
Objective

Both Parties have agreed to establish a general framework for cooperation and both have an interest in increasing bilateral co-operation in the field of education and strengthening ties between UniPD and the Party.

ARTICLE 2

Responsibilities of the parties

UniPD

1. UniPD makes admission decisions in accordance with UniPD standard admission procedures.
2. UniPD will keep the Party informed as to the availability of places and current entrance qualifications.
3. UniPD shall inform students coming from Guatemala regarding the financing opportunities provided by the Party specifying the Party's rules and procedures.
4. Under this Agreement, UniPD will inform the Party in due time about those students who are admitted to UniPD Master programs.
5. All the Party funded students accepted on any graduate programs at UniPD will be subject to the rules, policies and procedure of UniPD and will offer the same academic and benefit support provided to its students.
6. Two students shall obtain a 50% tuition discount when taking the master's program at UniPD. Master programs at UniPD are listed in Annex I.
7. UniPD will provide to the Party funded students the relevant documentation for the purposes of enrolment at UniPD as an international student. The student will be responsible for obtaining all necessary visas, approvals and entry documents as required. UniPD will also provide information on how the student's visas are generally obtained.
8. The Party shall inform about the study opportunities at UniPD
9. According to its established guidelines and financial aid limits for each program, the Party will provide a stipend for all eligible Masters students, as well as an annual support of health cover for overseas students, under this Agreement.
10. Students shall be nominated by the Party and admitted to UniPD, subject to acceptance of their qualifications and availability of places. The decision of the UniPD in this regard will be final.

Both Parties agree that the student is responsible and liable for all student fees (where applicable) and regional taxes. The Party will have no obligations or commitment to fund such fees for the duration of this Agreement.

In order for the Party funded students to continue receiving the support established in this Agreement, the students must be enrolled at UniPD and maintain an acceptable and satisfactory academic standard and performance in accordance with UniPD rules, policies and procedures.

ARTICLE 3

Administration

- a) For students benefitting from a discount offered by UniPD, UniPD will invoice the Party for tuition fees annually by 30 October of each year, showing in detail the amount and the complete name(s) of the student(s) for the purposes of payment.
- b) UniPD will report to the Party the conclusion of the Master's students' studies within 30 business days of the end date.
- c) This agreement is subject to availability of funding from each party, as well as to any legal provisions in force, and does not constitute in any way a commitment of resources in subsequent fiscal years, any extra expenses, or future economic obligations.

ARTICLE 4

Intellectual Property Rights

The Parties shall ensure protection of all Intellectual Property Rights created or shared under this Agreement as well as related agreements or other arrangements. As a general principle, intellectual property shall remain with the originating Party. Different clauses on Intellectual Property Rights, such as joint property rights or the granting of specific licenses, will be agreed in writing on a case-by-case basis in the project document or related agreement.

ARTICLE 5

Coordination Areas

In order to coordinate, the Parties designated as “Activities Coordinator” for the implementation of this Agreement:

- for UniPD, Head of International Relations Division, international.partnerships@unipd.it, tel: +39 049 827 6351
- for the Party, Executive Director, juan.ramirez@guatefuturo.org, tel: +502 22617560

If change in the “Activities Coordinator” arises, the situation must be immediately notified in writing to the counterpart, and the notification will validate the actions from the activities coordinator designated in the notification.

ARTICLE 6 Non-Discrimination

The Parties do not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin or ancestry, genetic information, marital status, parental status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, disability, or status as a veteran. Each Party shall accept the participants selected by the other Party if mutually acceptable academic and/or professional qualifications and standards are met.

ARTICLE 7 Name, Emblem and Seal

In any activities to be developed in the framework of this Agreement and/or its specific agreements, when relevant, the name, emblem and seal of both institutions shall be used, in accordance with their own rules and regulation unless objected by the concerned Party.

ARTICLE 8 Force Majeure

A party is not liable for non-performance of this Agreement if the non-performance is caused by events or conditions beyond that party's reasonable control including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of governmental authorities, strikes or industrial action, fire, flood, power failure, war, riots, outbreaks of disease, epidemic, pandemic or any other cause of such nature (a "Force Majeure Event") and the affected party gives prompt notice and makes all reasonable efforts to perform. The party affected by the Force Majeure Event shall, at the request of the other, take all reasonable steps to shorten and avoid the consequences of the Force Majeure Event and provide such reasonable assistance as the other party may request to remedy the consequences of the Force Majeure Event. If, despite the affected party's reasonable effort, the Force Majeure Event prevails, the parties shall be relieved from performing their respective obligations in relation to such part of this Agreement that has been affected by the Force Majeure Event.

ARTICLE 9 Technical cooperation and funding

The present Agreement does not constitute any obligation of funds by either Party.

The performance of this Agreement is subject to availability of funding from each party, as well as to any legal provisions in force, and therefore it does not constitute in any way a commitment of resources in subsequent fiscal years, any extra expenses or future economic obligations.

The personnel of either Party working on any activity contemplated under this Agreement or related agreements, will remain subject to the authority of the Party to which they belong. No legal work relationship shall be established with the other Party and in no case shall the other Party be considered a substitute employer.

ARTICLE 10 Consultation and Dispute Settlement

The Parties agree to consult periodically or at the request of each Party concerning the implementation of this Agreement.

If there is a difference in the interpretation or implementations of this agreement, both parties will endeavor to resolve it by informal discussions between the respective Activities Coordinators established in this agreement. If the parties cannot resolve the dispute, they agree to submit to an alternative dispute resolution, subject to the rules that the parties themselves mutually agree to adopt.

ARTICLE 11 Data protection

By accepting and signing this Agreement (whether by electronic means or otherwise), the the Party hereby consents to the collection, holding, storage and processing of personal data eventually provided to UniPD, on computer or other relevant filing systems for all purposes and time necessary for the implementation of this Agreement in accordance with UniPD's privacy guidelines. Then, UniPD also consents to the collection, holding, storage and processing of personal data eventually provided to the the Party, on computer or other relevant filing systems for all purposes and time necessary for the implementation of this Agreement in accordance with the Party's privacy guideline.

ARTICLE 12 Confidentiality

Both Parties will agree on the limits of confidentiality in the specific agreements, which might be signed within the framework of this agreement. In addition, and in the event that confidential information is exchanged as a result of the established bonds, the Parties agree on the non- disclosure and reserve of the methodological and scientific aspects pointed out as confidential by the Parties, while this agreement is in force.

ARTICLE 13 Privileges and immunities of UniPD

Nothing in this Agreement or relating to this shall be deemed as a waiver, expressed, or implied, of any of the privileges and immunities of UniPD, its officials and experts as foreseen by its Statutes and applicable international laws.

ARTICLE 14 Entry into Force, Duration and Termination

This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the last signature and shall remain in force for a period of three (3) years.
